If you are not a member of the Ulster Medical Society, we would appeal to you to give the question of joining your consideration. The Society was formed in 1862 through the amalgamation of the Belfast Medical Society (founded in 1806 and revived in 1822) and the Belfast Clinical and Pathological Society (founded in 1853). Meetings are held in the Society's room in the Whitla Medical Building at fortnightly intervals from the autumn to the spring. There is an opportunity to meet informally after each lecture and enjoy a cup of tea. The Ulster Medical Journal, the official organ of the Ulster Medical Society, is issued to all Fellows and Members free of charge.

By joining the Ulster Medical Society you will enable us to widen its influence and sphere of usefulness still further. The only requirement is that you should be a registered medical practitioner. A membership application form is appended below. Please return the completed form along with the direct debit form overleaf to the Honorary Secretary at the address above.
